1. General terms and conditions: Funeral Plan

Reference : (Your policy number)

If the Main Member ceases to be a member of the funeral scheme (dies, withdraws or retires) cover will cease immediately for the Main Member and all their Dependants. Should the Spouse elect to take over the policy of an existing Main Member due to the Main Member's Death, this must be done within 30 days of the Death and application/nominations form and monthly membership schedule must be updated accordingly. In the event where the service of Amabinda Amahle funerals are not required, No benefits shall be payable.

Benefit Split – Principal member and Spouse same cover, Cover of child between 14-22years same as principal member – age 6-13years 50% of principal member

Stillborn – 5 years 25% of principal member.

Accessories like tents, flower, programme and cemetery setup will not be made available for life assured under the age of 5 years.

The underwriter reserves the right to cancel the underwriting with 31 (thirty-one) Days' notice at any stage after the first 12 months guarantee period for whatsoever reason.

2. Premiums

Premiums must be paid for the month and the 12 months premium payment history must show that all payments were made monthly. Should premiums not be paid in terms of the policy, cover ceases and should the member wish to re-join, they will be treated as a new entrant, with the commensurate 6 months waiting period. The policy will lapse after 2 premiums missed within a 12 month cycle. The policy will be cancelled should the 2 arrear payments not be paid in full before the 2 months of non-payment has passed. All outstanding premiums due must then be paid.

Premiums are payable for the duration of the Policy and are not refundable.
